EDGING IT

Robert Clemons /
 Fran Curran, Co-Editors

All Texas Clubs' Spring Fling wine tour hosted this year by the Jaguar Club of Austin, with Joan Straach organizing the event...great weekend, Joan! Thanks from the SAJC.

A lot has happened in the whole world since our last newsletter, and even more in my personal world. Jaguar has two new models that are generating a lot of buzz, but I am not yet clear on the facts on what is being offered by the Jaguar dealers in the USA. I may have not been paying close enough attention, but if you are not fully informed, do not feel alone. Jaguar USA website data, information from the recent Jaguar Clubs of North America Annual General Meeting in Scottsdale, and information coming from Jaguar Land Rover directly through media releases conflict. It may be the case in the JLR press releases that it is not information for the USA market. Two wheel drive, versus all wheel drive, what engine/transmission combinations will be offered, all seem to change and conflict, but with time will come clarity. After my saying last time XE's would be here in March, followed by F Pace in May, after hearing it from our local dealer, Barrett Jaguar, we now hear both new models will arrive in May. Mileage figures have not been released for the USA market anywhere that I can find. Jaguar World Monthly magazine out of the UK provides all types of information on all kinds of drivetrain options, but what is sold in the USA is not treated thoroughly there. It usually comes down to the terms of the ordering agreements between Jaguar Land Rover in the UK and the dealers in the USA. Maybe we will know more by the end of May. I am equally interested in an XE and an F Pace, but I know it would have to be one or the other, not both. I think the cargo space will drive the latter, as I will be doing some hauling and traveling in the future.

In the last newsletter, I indicated to you that both Robert Clemons and I would be your delegates to the JCNA AGM, but I have to apologize as I had to cancel in early March due to a family emergency. My 87 year old mother was diagnosed with late term abdominal cancer on March 11th, and at that time, the doctors in Shreveport were saying she had 2 to 6 months to live. I wrote a letter to the SAJC officers and directors, the JCNA Regional Directors, and the JCNA President that I would resign in 30 days after we saw what the future brought. Doris Blackwell lived only 8 more days after they said that, coming home for hospice care the last five of those days. She was always worried about losing her mind before she died, as her mother and sister had, but she was alert and all there until the end. I want to thank the club for making a memorial donation in her memory, but I truly wish we only did this for members and their spouses. I also want to thank everyone for doing the Wildflower Microbrewery Tour in her honor, and I showed her the photos that Janet Martin and others were texting me. Thanks to Janet for doing that, and organizing the whole tour.

As it turned out, those were the last photos of Texas wildflowers that she ever saw, as it ended that same night. She was in a room where one side was lined with flowers, thanks to the gardens of our friends in Shreveport, and the peak season for spring flowers up there at the time.

We are heading into summer and are beginning to plan the progressive dinner and our 24th Alamo City Concours d'Elegance. I will be organizing the former, and Fran the latter. Before we can go very far on the Concours, we first need to retrain and rectify all of our Concours Judges. We are two short of the number we need, with only one in training so far. Thanks Dennis Tumblin! We need another volunteer here pretty soon, and I have been busy out of town in Louisiana a lot, for what I just described. We will have the training in June, and everyone will have to take the open book test, including myself. All you Judges, and you know who you are, can start reading the 2016 Judges Manual online now, and that would be very helpful.

We are also headed toward our 25th Concours next year, and there is talk of trying to return to Club Giraud for it, site of the original SAJC Alamo City Concours. There is also talk coming from our Regional Directors and maybe some others, about SAJC being the host club for the Annual General Meeting in 2017. I have not been very high on the AGM, after a near unanimous selection AGM vote to have one in Mexico City got pulled, after a lot of work by the Mexico club was done, based only on an email poll sent out over a 4th of July weekend. One of the Dallas clubs was drafted, and the late Tom McGrath had a heart attack that eventually killed him pulling it off. Even one of the early JCNA Presidents, the late Bill Streitenberger of the Los Angeles club, was asking us to do the AGM before Mexico emerged, and we backed away gracefully. SAJC has hosted two North American events in the 19 years I have been in this club, the Annual General Meeting in 1997, and the Challenge Championship in 2009. It has even been suggested to me that we forego a Concours in 2017 and have this AGM instead, but skip Alamo City Concours Number 25? Say it ain't so.

AGM / IJF
SCOTTSDALE, ARIZONA

Another AGM has come and gone, but the information given was very informative.

One major topic was CLEAR BRAS: Lots of Jaguar owners are going to the Invisible Bras on their cars. Members who already have clear bras on their Jags are complaining about competition points. The board discussed that if your car is being judged in either champion or driven division, points will be taken off for this item. The board will discuss and make a decision on the number of points to be taken off for this non-authentic item. Also, the amount of clear bra on the car will be discussed. Some members wanted clear bras on the entire car, but the majority wanted the A-frame to the front only. MORE TO COME on this issue.

Jaguar Club of North America revealed the new Jaguars. XE and F-PACE. XE is a smaller version of the XF, but with more technology added. The F-PACE is Jaguar's first SUV. See pictures below:

Also, combined with the AGM was the International Jaguar Festival with over 300 cars covering 4 acres. Starting from the first Jaguar ever built, that was a motorcycle and sidecar to last Jaguar, which is the F-Type Series 7.

The next International Jaguar Festival will be in Lanier Islands, Georgia on October 13-15, 2017. I had an excellent time in Scottsdale. It was a very relaxing place to visit.

A Legend of old meets a legend of new...at Barrett Jaguar—Mar. 26, 2016

There was an open house at Barrett Jaguar on Saturday, March 26th to view a 1957 D-type along with a 2016 Project 7 Jaguar where the two Jags were on display on Barrett's Showroom floor. I stopped by later in the day to check out the D-type only to discover that the Jaguar D-Type Replica had been entered in our Concours events in the past and belonged originally to Senior Manual Corte of the Jaguar Club of Mexico as well as the San Antonio Jaguar Club. A few years later, the D-type was purchased by Tito Gallegos also of the San Antonio Jaguar Club. Unfortunately a couple of years ago, Tito had a tragic accident and passed away. That's where Robert Ober comes into the picture. He is the current owner of all of Tito's automotive collection including the Jaguar D-type that was on display at Barrett Jaguar. Following is a history lesson on the D-type's original restoration and continued care.

Beginning with the Restoration...

The car was very detailed and involved securing XJ6 suspension components to complete. I remember the body also included a dent that was in the original D-type the mold was taken from which had to be repaired to complete the build. I also made a number of additional pieces from aluminum to replace fiberglass components and add some more authentic items. I lined the cockpit and firewall with aluminum which made a better presentation. I had several hundred photos of the car but lost them all which I had a computer crash otherwise I would have included some of the detail for the newsletter. Toward the end of the build I heard a rumor that a friend of mine found a d-type front end in San Antonio. Mike said it was advertised as an e-type nose but was D-type instead. It had been a spares for an original D-type that used to be based in San Antonio. That original car is now in Mexico City and I had the distinct please to drive it a few years ago from the annual Mexico Concourse back into Mexico City. What a thrill. Anyway we bought the D-type aluminum front end and I adapted it to Senior Corte's car. The car was very light weighing only about 1400 lbs and with a 4.2 engine, was really quick. Sometime later, it was sold to Tito who visited my shop often on runs through the hill country and I maintained it when he wanted something done. The photos attached is it sitting in my shop, peacefully waiting to make another run through the hillside. It gives me great please to see that it is still making a showing and in the area. So many cars I've built have disappeared from San Antonio to never be seen again.

Kenneth P. James (Ken)

...and Continuing with the Enjoyment.

The car now has a name: Delilah

She rests in San Antonio at Vault Automotive Services, where she is given continued care and additional authentic D-type parts and pieces between her frequent drives around town and through the Hill Country!

Delilah has received a number of awards along the way for "continuation" of a D-Type. She has been raced on several tracks by her former owner, Tito Gallegos and present owner as a classic. Her present owner purchased all of Tito's automotive collection in 2014.

All Texas Jaguar Spring Fling—hosted by the Austin Club—Apr. 22-24, 2016

The Annual Spring Fling was held in Fredericksburg & Hye, Texas. On Saturday we caravanned to Wlm Chris Winery, Pedernales Cellars and then to Hye Market Restaurant and Tasting Room for lunch. Hye Market is located in an historic post office featuring a selection of hand craft beer & Texas only wine. After lunch, we made a stop at Garrison Bros. Distillery. For dinner, we walked to Andy's Steak and Seafood Grill. A great thank you goes to Joan Straach of the Jaguar Club of Austin (host club) for setting up such a wonderful event.

SAN ANTONIO JAGUAR CLUB

SECRETARY'S REPORT – April 5, 2016 MEETING MINUTES

by Joe Romo III, Secretary

Attendance: 13 members attended (see below for meeting attendees).

Secretary's Report: Meeting was called to order at approx. 7:15 pm at TGIFriday's (Loop 410 E & McCullough). Joe Romo gave the report for March 2016. Meeting Minutes read & accepted by vote.

Treasurer's Report: Robert Clemens was not present at the meeting as he was attending the AGM IJF in Scottsdale, AZ as the SAJC's proxy. Brian Blackwell gave current balance on SAJC account as $2,160.12.

Discussion Topics:

Lisa Musial: One of the original founding members & Treasurer for many years passed away in February. Club was in favor of donating $100 to Brighter Days Horse Refuge that Lisa supported.

Microbrewery Tour: Event organized by Janet Martin held on Saturday, March 19; only a small group attended but all said they enjoyed.

JCNA International Jaguar Festival: Brian discussed changes & updates, which follows the AGM at the same venue. Robert Clemons attended & served as our Club's Proxy.

Texas Jaguar Spring Fling: Austin Jaguar Club hosted in Fredericksburg on April 22nd & 23rd. Fran & Joe, Don & Rose, Pat & Judy Mitchel attended the full weekend. Brian & Paula, John & Carol showed up for Saturday's dinner event. Overall; we had great weather, scenery, cars, food, wine, beer, whiskey & company.

Concours d'Elegance Update: Brian Blackwell reported on other Texas Concours dates. SAJC still needs place & date. We also need 2 more judges or we could be denied a sanction. Brian proposed Judges' Meeting & Training for May 7th @ Victor's (believe this date has changed).

Progressive Dinner (2016): After some discussion, all agreed to hold event on Sat., July 23rd.

Next Meeting: Originally set for Victor's Service Center but this will be rescheduled. Next meeting to be held at TGIFriday's on May 5, 2016. Meeting begins at 6:30 pm for dinner; 7:30 pm for meeting.

Motion to Adjourn: Meeting adjourned at approximately 7:36 pm.

Meeting Attendees: Brian Blackwell, Fran Curran, Joe Romo, Dora & Eddie Garcia, Marilyn & Tony Oliva, Bill Davis, Fred Harvey, Judy & Pat Mitchell, and Sharon & J.P. Green.
